

What you'll bring:

-  a passion for helping children by working well with families
-  a proven children and families social care background – unless as a NQSW
-  exceptional assessment skills and the ability to apply therapeutic interventions
-  strong interpersonal and organisational skills
-  in-depth knowledge of current legislation
-  be open and willing to learn, and share learning
-  leadership potential
-  able to work effectively in teams and deliver peer support
-  a degree in Social Work or equivalent and HCPC registration

Making a difference today for the future of tomorrow's children and families